

Write a Historical Fiction Short Story

1. Choose a setting

- a. Year
- b. Location

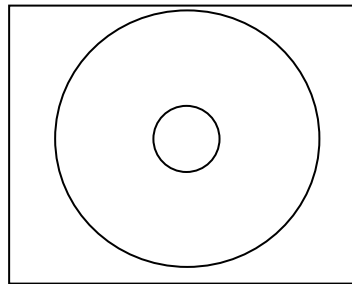

2. Research

- a. Issues going on
- b. Real life figures

3. Choose your protagonist

- a. Age, gender, race? Goals? Fears?

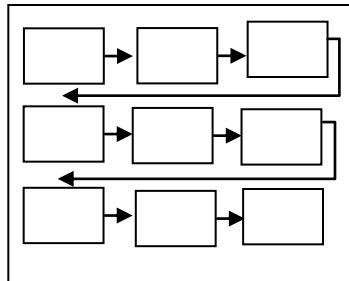

4. Choose your conflict

- a. What's the internal conflict (big decision the character must make within him/herself)
- b. What's the external conflict (person vs. person, person vs. society, person vs. nature)

5. Map out the plot

- a. Exposition
- b. Rising Action
- c. Climax
- d. Falling Action/Resolution

6. Start actually writing

- a. Start writing at the point you have the most ideas about. This might not be the beginning of the story.